

UPDATE FROM INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

As part of our ongoing commitment to further expand our global service offering, we are delighted to welcome three new partners to the Reed & Mackay international partnership.

Anfitriones, Book Travel Center and Eagle Travel officially join as the exclusive Reed & Mackay representatives for Mexico, Colombia and Belgium respectively.

The appointment of these three key strategic markets further strengthens our position as a leader in the provision of corporate travel management services in both the Latam and European regions.

Reed & Mackay are extremely proud of our global partnership and the shared values we have as a business. The recruitment of Anfitriones, Book Travel Center and Eagle Travel are an excellent addition to our team. Chosen for their exceptional reputations in the local market, desire to provide first class customer service and the ability to provide timely and accurate data for our prestigious corporate clients, makes these partners the ideal choice for Reed & Mackay.
